Mr. Kline,

We have not heard back from you regarding your availability for a court conference on July 2 at 12:00 pm. As you can see from the Court's order, your presence at the hearing is required. I plan to write to the Court today at 4:00 pm to notify the Court as to the parties' availability for the hearing. Please let me know before then whether that date and time works for you. If I have not heard from you before 4:00 pm, I will let the Court know that as well.

Subject: Sines v. Kessler - Hearing Date

Mr. Kline,

The Court has asked that the parties coordinate dates for a telephonic conference. In case you did not receive it, the Court's Order – which is the subject of the upcoming conference – is attached. July 2, 2019 at 12:00 pm appears to be the most convenient time and date for all parties and the Court. I would like to respond to the Court today to confirm that time and date for the hearing. Can you confirm that July 2 at 12:00 pm works for you? Thanks.
